Hosted by members of the Fight for Lifers West - fighting to abolish life without parole in PA.

The Hardest Question Ever... is mixture of live performers, chain gang inspired music, and shadow puppets set inside a life size prison cell covered with hundreds of letters written by prisoners. We aim to create a dialogue surrounding how society encourages violence and punishes those who are violent. The Hardest Question Ever is a three act play portraying responsibility, forgiveness and the pain of loss. The stories are actual events that are directly related to the creators of the play.

The show is a little over a half hour and there will be a discussion afterward.
