

Moonstone, SageWriters and The Broad Street Ministry presents

LOCKED UP: KEYS TO PRISON CHANGE

Saturday, March 31, 2007

Broad Street Ministry, 320 South Broad Street, Philadelphia PA

Registration Information

FEE: $25 for the entire program includes meals

(Discounted tickets are available for those who need them; contact www.lockedup.us or 610-328-6101.)

Conference Schedule

8:30am Registration Opens

9am to 10am Welcome

10am to 12pm American Criminal Justice From Within: What Works, What Doesn't

MC: William DiMascio, Executive Director, Pennsylvania Prison Society
Leon King, Commissioner, Philadelphia Prison System
Devon Brown, Washington, DC Prison Commissioner

12pm to 1pm Lunch with entertainment

1pm to 3pm Transforming American Criminal Justice

Introduction: Michael Coard, Philadelphia lawyer and civil rights activist
MC: Angus Love, Pennsylvania Institutional Law Project
Kimberly Haven, Executive Director of Justice Maryland on alternative re-entry
Julia Hall, PhD. on restorative justice as an alternative system to punitive justice

3pm to 3:30pm Break

3:30pm to 5:30pm The Future of American Criminal Justice

Introduction: Kay Harris, Department of Criminology, Temple University
Sister Helen Prejean, author of Dead Man Walking, anti-death penalty activist
Angela Davis, author of Are Prisons Obsolete?, prison activist
Devon Brown, Prison Commissioner, Washington DC

5:30pm to 8:30pm Dinner, Awards Presentation and Entertainment

Awards presentation to Queen Mother Nana Ama Akofo, Mrs. Annie Hyman and Mrs. Emily Rollins, for thirty years of visiting men at Graterford Prison, presented by Sonia Sanchez with a special poem written for the occasion followed by a program of Poetry and Music.

visit www.lockedup.us for more information